1. Admin Tab: This section is usually for managing users, settings, and system configurations.
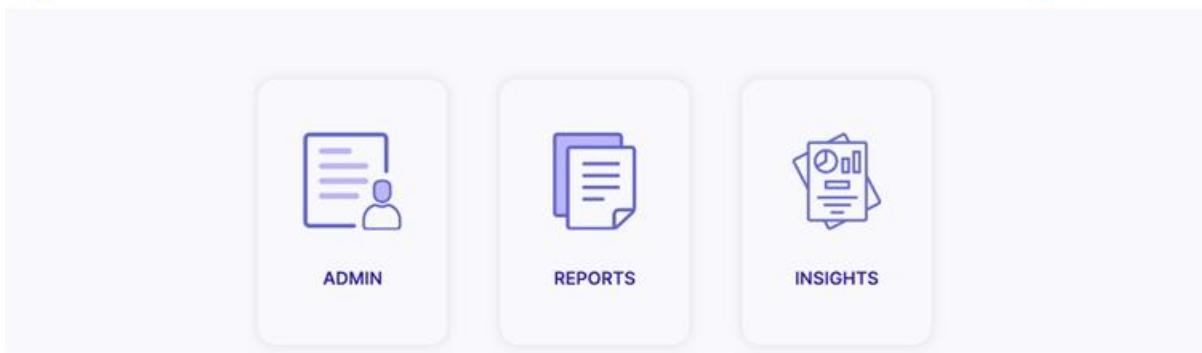

Common actions include:

- Adding or removing users

- Changing user roles/permissions

- Updating system settings

- Managing security and access controls

2. Reports Tab: This is where you can generate, view, and download reports.

Typical functionalities:

- Viewing pre-built reports

- Customizing reports with filters

- Exporting reports (e.g., CSV, PDF)

- Scheduling automatic report generation

3. Insights Tab: This section provides analytics and visual dashboards to help you understand trends and performance.

Key features might include:

- Interactive charts and graphs

- KPIs and performance metrics

- Predictive analytics

- Data exploration tools